

The Citadel Beach House, pictured above, is located on the Isle of Palms and is open year round to members of the Corps of Cadets, faculty, and staff.

Leave: Period in which qualified cadets may depart campus.

OAO: One and only. A Cadet's True Love.

The Charleston area has hosted the Ryder Cup Golf Tournament, the United States Tennis Association Men's Clay Court Championships, the Family Circle Cup, the Federation Cup Tournament, and several other world-class sporting events.

The Citadel's dynamic Fine Arts Series, featuring musical ensembles, dance groups, Shakespearean plays, and dramatic readings, is supplemented by the diverse social and cultural offerings of the College of Charleston and several other Lowcountry colleges and universities.

CHARMS OF CHARLESTON

THE CITADEL

Historic cobblestone streets and contemporary urban culture. Mystic alleys and open courtyards. Beautiful beaches and challenging golf courses. Minor league sports teams and major league restaurants. Open parks and opulent plantations. The City of Charleston has it all, serving as a powerful magnet for tourists – and Citadel parents – as well as an ideal setting for generations of Citadel Cadets.

As your “free time” increases each year, you will enjoy more opportunities to discover the charms of Charleston, a city of grace and style, blessed with a proud past, emboldened by a promising future. You won't need a car to explore Charleston, just an open mind and an adventurous spirit.