SERVICE

Pre-Law Service

Pre-Law Advisor, The Citadel (16 May 2019-present) (Interim Pre-Law Advisor: July 2018-15 May 2019 and October 2014-August 2015). Responsibilities:

- Advising Citadel students and alumni about the law school application process, law school, and the legal profession.
- Helping students and alumni with their law school applications, particularly drafting and revising personal statements. (Since the fall of 2006, I have assisted students and alumni with their law school applications and advised them on both the admissions process and the legal profession).
- Running two application workshops in the fall, one on how to apply to law school and the other on writing the personal statement. (Since the fall of 2007, I have provided the personal statement workshop).
- Scheduling and hosting law school admissions officers to speak to prospective law school applicants (through 2022). This is now one of the responsibilities currently assigned to the Faculty Advisor to The Inn of Court.
- Editing and distributing current information regarding pre-law advising and law school admissions.
- Compiling data on our graduates' and students' performance on the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT).

Faculty Facilitator for Law Senior Leadership Integration Seminar (2023, 2021, 2014-2019). Along with Citadel Counsel Mark Brandenburg, I served as a Faculty Facilitator for the law Senior Leadership Integration Seminar annually at Barnwell Whaley, LLC on Leadership Day.

Faculty Advisor, Inn of Court (Pre-Law Club), The Citadel (advisor fall 2014-spring 2022, co-advisor fall 2007-fall 2013). Responsibilities:

- Maintaining club charter.
- Scheduling and hosting visits by attorneys and law students.
- Fundraising.
- Planning and holding the annual spring reading and banquet.
- From fall of 2013 through spring of 2020, I arranged for Kaplan to offer an on-campus LSAT prep course every year in the spring at a discount to our students and alumni.

Chair, Ad-Hoc Committee for Pre-Law Scholars Program (fall 2016-January 2018). At the request of the Provost, I invited lawyers employed at The Citadel and faculty who were either involved in law-related classes or pre-law advising to be part of an ad hoc committee to assess ways to bring about a more formal pre-law curriculum. I drafted an initial proposal and the committee convened in September of 2016. Following a series of meetings with the committee, the Provost, and senior members of The Citadel administration, I revised the proposal extensively and submitted it for formal consideration in January of 2018 for inclusion in The Citadel's Strategic Plan.

Faculty Advisor, Mock Trial Team, The Citadel (fall 2008-spring 2012)

Faculty advisor to and logistical coordinator for the team. Responsibilities included requesting funds from the administration, scheduling and facilitating participation in tournaments, fronting registration and administrative fees while awaiting reimbursement, and—when necessary—coaching and chaperoning the team as well as serving as a judge at out-of-state tournaments.

Interim Pre-Law Advisor, UNC-Chapel Hill (fall 2002-spring 2003)

Advised undergraduates on the law school admission process, critiqued drafts of personal statements, reviewed law school applications, helped with LSAT preparation and school selection.
