Women's Leadership Workshop

Leading with Humor, Power and Impact: 4 Languages of Leadership

Communication is arguably the most important skill a leader has in their tool kit. The style and effectiveness of a person's communication skills will determine their success or failure as a leader. Guest speaker, LB Adams, CEO of Practical Dramatics, will discuss the four languages of leadership and how you can have better, more profitable conversations.

In this workshop you will:

- Gain a profound understanding of four types of leadership language
- Discover how you can authentically implement these communication tactics
- Discuss workshop leadership scenarios with fellow participants
- Walk out the door with impactful ways to reframe the way you speak to anyone
